

Bethesda Library Newsletter September 2010

Preschool Storytime

September 1—Water Day! (wear swimsuits!)

September 8—Beautiful Butterflies

September 15—Rainbows Bright

September 22—Puffy, Fluffy Clouds

September 29—Mellow Yellow

Bethesda Library will be closed on Saturday, September 4, to observe Labor Day.

Do you love chocolate? A great read? You are invited to attend a Book Tasting at Bethesda Public Library on Thursday, September 23. Sample delicious handmade chocolate provided by Schokolad Chocolate Factory, enjoy Hatcher Dairy's award-winning chocolate milk, and enjoy readings of scrumptious books at the same time! What could be better? The fun begins at 6 pm. Adults only, please.

Calling all Bethesda Library patrons! If you love Bethesda Library, we need you to be a part of the Friends of Bethesda Library. Our Friends group has helped us to provide extra library materials, craft supplies, Summer Reading performers, and many other things that benefit our patrons. Membership is only $10 annually. Join the Friends and make a difference at your library!

Next time you stop by Bethesda Library, take a moment to enjoy all the butterflies on our beautiful flowers! And please thank Rhonda and Bard Edrington at Foliage Management Systems for donating the flowers and tending our flower boxes. The Edringtons are members of Friends of Bethesda Library. Rhonda and Bard, you're the best!

For more creative learning ideas check out
www.makinglearningfun.com

September 2010

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
			1 10:30 Preschool Time	2 6:30 pm Bethesda Book Group	3	4 Library Closed
5	6 Labor Day	7 10:30 Toddler Time	8 10:30 Preschool Time Rosh Hashanah	9	10	11
12 Grandparents Day	13	14 10:30 Toddler Time	15 10:30 Preschool Time	16 6 pm Friends meeting	17 10:30 Snuggle Bug Club Yom Kippur	18
19	20	21 10:30 Toddler Time	22 10:30 Preschool Time	23 6-7 pm Book Tasting Autumn begins	24	25
26	27	28 10:30 Toddler Time	29 10:30 Preschool Time	30		