Thursday, Feb. 18 from 4:30-6:30-Homeschool Workshop and book signing with Karen Costello, author of Go Fly a Kite: Ten Surprising Strategies for Success in Your Homeschool. Karen is a wife, mother, author and speaker who has homeschooled for 25 years and has a heart to encourage and equip women for all they are called to do. She has been a guest on several local television stations and is a highly requested speaker throughout the southeast for church groups, homeschool groups and civic organizations. She is completing her masters degree in counseling and teaches Bible studies and literature classes to homeschoolers. An energetic, enthusiastic, veteran home educator, she has spoken to and motivated thousands of people. She has homeschooled a doctor, an accountant and a nurse but is queasy at the sight of blood and cannot balance her own check-book!

Join Karen at the library for a fun, inspiring time and take home one of her books. Karen has presented a class at our library in the past and you are sure to enjoy this one. You may purchase the book for $14 but the workshop is free. Please register for the workshop.
